RISK ALERTS

- Earnings season volatility spike: MU, FDX, CCL, PAYX this week will drive gamma/vega; position sizing critical
- Tech mega-cap rebalancing pressure noted (JPM); QQQ showing weakness vs SPY; trim if breakdown below 725 confirmed
- Iran de-escalation narrative may reverse on geopolitical re-escalation; crude rally would pressure yields/equities upward
- VIX regime unconfirmed at 12:41 PM; if implied vol spikes above 18, shift to defensive posture immediately
- Quarter-end institutional selling noted in large-cap tech; watch for block prints in XLK/QQQ into Jun 27 close
